Great quality & value!

Welcome to our “little family book”

Why not treat your family, the birthday boy or girl, the special person in your life or just yourself to the absolutely perfect, bespoke and most memorable holiday and hire all seven of our lovely modern cottages for exclusive use including FOUR hot tubs, FOUR gardens and SIX BBQ's.

You can also hire just the number of cottages you need.

We can help host a maximum of 32 guests (no minimum) in a beautiful setting only 20 mins drive away from Cambridge City Centre; perfectly situated for a fantastic balance between a relaxing country affair and an exciting city experience.

This is our ‘little family book’ (which is getting bigger by the day!) which can give you all the information you need to help you arrange everything for the kids including books and toys, baby equipment, woodland parties, family yoga, micro-lighting, baby sitting and much much more!

For off-site ideas we have contacts for a swimming pool, Wimpole Hall Farm, punting on The River Cam, shopping, coffee shops, restaurants and much much more!

For both Mummy and Daddy we have a visiting spa service and many more ideas for parents, grand-parents and carers to indulge in!

It's the little things in life!

For further information, prices, bookings and a calming influence, please contact us on 07544 208959 or email directly on bookings@fullershillcottages.co.uk

Pottery Painting

Looking to do something different? Pottery painting is a great way to create a souvenir of your holiday or party weekend (that isn't a hangover!) That said, it is BYOB, so feel free to bring a bottle of bubbly or two to help get the creative juices flowing. They can also put on a little tea party. Don't panic you don't need to be crafty or arty to enjoy, it's a great activity for all ages and abilities. Each person can either paint a piece of pottery for themselves or an item, which when put together forms a tea set, for the birthday girl or boy as a unique gift! While we recommend going to them, as they have a massive selection of items, it is possible for a small fee for them to bring the fun to the cottages or for you to pick up a DIY pack!

Guests of Fuller's Hill Cottages who book a pottery painting party (minimum 8 participants) will get a personalised plate with all the names of the guests on as a memento of her special day.

Reflexology & Thai Foot Massage

Good Reflexions by Joanne Rose

Joanne is a fully qualified reflexologist and a member of the Association of Reflexologists.

Reflexology is a completely relaxing foot treatment that may help to reduce stress and induce deep relaxation. It could help improve your circulation and nerve function, cleanse the body of toxins and impurities and revitalise your energy.

As in reflexology, Thai foot massage aims to balance the body by stimulating reflexes and can also help to promote sleep.

By working on reflex points in the foot, you get a work out for your internal organs as well.

Why not book yourself a massage before checking out from your fun and exciting weekend for a holistic and relaxing finalé?!

To make an appointment, please call Joanne directly on 07523 853927

Our Play Area

There's no need to travel anywhere at all when staying with us at Fuller's Hill Cottages. There's a lovely small play area around the corner near the farm yard where there's three swings, a slide and wooden wigwam.

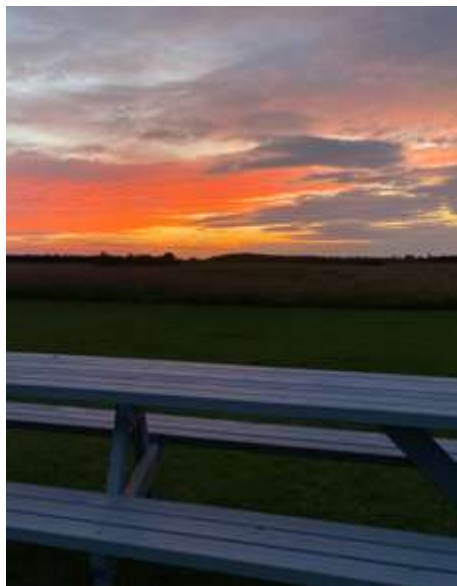

Along with a large adult size picnic table and a smaller child size picnic table, enjoy a picnic on site and watch your children play safely under the copse of trees providing lots of shade and shelter.

Private toilets are nearby and you can help yourself to a tea or coffee from the pilot's cabin just next door. Cans of drink, crisps and chocolate are also available from the cabin with a minimal cash payment.

Please be careful when walking around the farm yard, especially during harvest and drilling seasons when there may be tractors, forklifts and combine harvesters around. Lots to look at and listen to on a working arable farm!

Enjoy and stay safe!

Our Sunset Place

Right on your doorstep at Fuller's Hill Cottages is our fantastic Sunset Place which has a very large picnic table where you can sit with a glass of something and enjoy the beautiful sunsets at Fuller's Hill.

This is also the area where you can enjoy your wedding reception after your marriage ceremony. Choose the band stand or tee-pee and celebrate away with the most amazing natural backdrop of sunsets and birdsong, and maybe the occasional air display!

Please do contact us should you wish to explore the option of have your wedding and/or party here. We have luxury accommodation and enviable contacts to help make your occasion go with a swing!

Encore!

Encore brings live music to everyone from babies to grandparents in a relaxed and informal environment. They believe wholeheartedly in letting very young children hear music from all different genres.

Everyone is encouraged to react to the music however they want – jumping up and down, dancing, sitting, lying down or drawing pictures inspired by what they have heard. But above all they learn that music is fun and there's something very exciting about hearing it live.

Due to the current situation they have moved all concerts online until further notice. Please check their Facebook Page Encore – Concerts For Big And Small. Concerts are usually at 10:30 on Thursday mornings, please check their website for when and where. Previous concerts can also be accessed.

Please go to their website for further info www.encoreconcerts.co.uk

Buzzi Bodies

Buzzi Bodies is a local baby and toddler group hosted by a very small team of dedicated and enthusiastic Mummies local to The Gransdens.

This very lovely group is close to our hearts and is on every Tuesday morning in Little Gransden Village Hall, 9:30-11:30 term time only.

Everyone is welcome with a minimal fee payable in cash every week that you choose to attend. Free tea, coffee and biscuits and a chance to chat with other parents and carers for a couple of hours whilst your child(ren) plays and has much fun.

Art and craft table, ride along toys, Happy Land, football, baby corner, books and a sing along at the end can all be enjoyed by our guests.

Great Gransden Park

Parks are still open! Yay! Thank goodness. For a suitable change of environment for you and your little ones, why not go to the local park in Great Gransden?

Swings, roundabout, see-saw, climbing frame, slides and a wooden train, your boys and girls can also enjoy a big run around in adjoining field behind.

Parking is available free of charge on the road adjacent to Little Lane on West Street, just up from the Crown & Cushion. A few minutes walk down Little Lane, the park is on your left. The pedestrian entrance can sometimes be a little bit muddy so please be careful.

There's a few picnic tables and benches for parents and carers to sit and relax for those precious few moments when you can!

Enjoy!

Gamlingay Park

Gamlingay Park is just next door to The Eco Hub and there is free parking if you can find a space on the road opposite.

Much bigger than the park in Great Gransden, there's not much shade, so please slap on the sun-cream on the sunnier days.

Climbing frames, slides, swings, zip-wire, and a brand new 'crocodile' swing you are really spoiled for choice!

There are a few picnic tables and benches dotted about to rest your weary legs and plenty of bins to dispose of your rubbish. Please use them or take your rubbish home with you.

Enjoy!

Gulliver's Land

Looking for a magical fun day out when restrictions allow? Only approx. 35 miles away you can enjoy a great selection of rides, shows and attractions at Gulliver's Land, Milton Keynes.

They're a family-run theme park designed for children aged between 2 to 13. From the Runaway Train in Discovery Bay to the Jungle River Ride, there are plenty of exciting rides to ensure that all the family have a fun day out. There are also a number of rides and play areas designed for toddlers.

They don't have lots of additional theme park prices and parking is completely free. Save big on your giant adventure by booking them park tickets at least two days in advance.
